

Annagail has always defied and stretched genres, seamlessly blending the depth of singer-songwriters with the energy of a rock band. They are equal parts introspective and dynamic—thinking man's Americana, pop for philosophers, country for the curious, and rock for the recluse. No matter how they are categorized, Annagail weaves heartache and hope into music for the disillusioned. As Jared has said of their fluid style, "It's not uncommon for me to listen to The Cure and Steve Earle back to back... before breakfast."

With ten albums to their name, Annagail embraces both courage and frailty. All Music affirms this, stating, "Annagail emit a brazen sense of optimism in their music, which ranges from buoyant to ruggedly soulful... An appealing amalgam." The lockdowns brought two albums, Home and Baby, It's You, both hailed as "a pair of passionate and resilient albums."

Early 2025 brings the release of their first live album, recorded at the renowned listening room Seven Steps Up. Preceding this is their first foray into Christmas music with Tinsel & Holly. Complementing these projects is 'Holy Ghost & Whiskey,' a 40-minute documentary/short film chronicling their last two decades as a band and the making of 'Home.'

Their EP, The Cabin Sessions, produced and recorded with Nashville hit-maker Keith Follesé (Lady Antebellum, Faith Hill, Katy Perry, Emerson Drive), offers a glimpse into the influences. Electronic flourishes merge with undeniable rootsy hooks. Featured on numerous compilations and even a feature film soundtrack (Decision, starring CCM vocalist Natalie Grant and country artist Billy Dean) they have established themselves as a powerful act, sharing the stage with YAM Haus, Plumb, Pillar, Bleach, Superhero, Jason Ingram, Satellite Soul, The Appleseed Cast, Christopher Williams, Jennifer Knapp, Ellery, VOTA, Valentiger, and many others.

At the heart of Annagail's music is a desire to create meaningful moments. "The gig doesn't validate us," says Jennifer. "Sharing what we're compelled to do and what makes us feel alive is the motivation."
